Point University Library - Electronic Resources.
These are the databases provided by the library of Point University Library.

Koha. The catalog of the library of Point University library. What books are in our Library.

GALILEO. A collection of over 200 databases. Journals, newspapers, and books.

JSTOR. The Scholarly Journal Archive. History, literature, music, business, science. Full text from the 1800s.

eBooks on EBSCOhost. about 150,000 ebooks across multiple subjects.

Films on Demand Academic collection. Streaming video of thousands of titles across all subjects.

Classical Music Library. Recordings for listening to “classical” music.

Classical Scores Library. Full images of musical scores.

Hoover’s Online. Company profiles. Business.

Education Research Complete. Indexing and full text of hundreds of journals.

PsycInfo. American Psychological Association, from the 1880’s.

PsycArticles. American Psychological Association publications in full text.

Gale Virtual Reference Library. Reference books in science, history, and literature.

Science. AAAS Science magazine/journal.

Nexis Uni (Lexis Nexis). Legal, business, news, medical.